CHICAGO, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

TRAVESER IS DEAD.

"There are more ways for a man to run his horse to suit his book than by pulling his head off in the straight," says Rudyard Kipling, and the owner of Molo, who won the second race at Hawthorne yesterday, must have studied the various systems referred to by the English author and picked out one that worked splendidly, as the last race of the horse (a 6 to 5 shot on that occasion), was so bad that yesterday the book-makers considered him a legitimate 20 to 1 chance, especially as Wilson, a boy said to have never before won a race, was up. The post price was 13 to 1 straight, 6 to 1 place, 3 to 1 show. The yell was something dreadful when Molo, coming on at the finish, ran right through the bunch, and although Wilson nearly threw him against Heigh Ho, the horse found a hole and won, despite the weak riding of his jockey. There was much talk about touts graduating into racehorse owners, and having for intimates gentry whose pictures grace the rogues' gallery but this thing will always obtain when everything don't go smooth for some people. The price against Prince Blazes was a long one in view of his liking for mud and his consistent racing and the horse went out with Heigh Ho, made the pace for a time and was only beaten by Molo. Graziella, coming from the rear on the end, was third from Heigh Ho. Hardly and King Bermuda were in the front bunch until the last quarter. Elidad finished close up. The start was a perfect one in both this and the race following.

The day was too cool for comfort but occasionally the sun peeped forth. There was a high wind and the track was deep in mud.

Rio Chico advanced from 4 to 7 to 1, but won the second race with plenty to spare. Facade, second, ran the best race according to Mr. Rodegap, whose Capsicum was third, after being bumped about.

Burlesque II. could not run at all, and was beaten a sixteenth in the mile and one-eighth dash won by The Devil. The winner was never in trouble, lying second to Plantain to the homestretch, then coming on. Mistral II. beat Plantain for the place. Al Fresco ran a good race and had a chance, but Ellis threw it away by getting into the deep mud.

When Glenmoyne finished beaten off with Idle Hour and Pitfall, and Moncreith raced alongside Tranby four lengths behind Double Dummy, who ran third in the fourth race, a sarcastic bookie that could get neither the first nor second choice backed shrieked "Glenmoyne first, Moncreith second, there's your public form," and as Wash Nervell announced in the betting ring "All right. Bishop Reed first, Vice Regal second, Double Dummy third," the echo was heard from all sides, "All right! All right!" The winner led all the way and won handily by a length. Vice Regal was off in the rear and not fully on his stride. He ran here, there, everywhere, finally finishing in the deep going on the inside rail and certainly ran a remarkable good race. Glenmoyne was second and Pitfall third until the last quarter, where both stopped to nothing. Tranby was many lengths behind all the horses up the backstretch. Moncreith did nothing as might have been inferred from his last race and was said to be lame. "Students of the 'dope' say that Glenmoyne never did fancy real heavy going.

Three to one Abuse looked to be a royal price, and was occasioned by a sharp tussle at the opening of the betting, participated in by John Glenn, Marcus Cartwright and J. J. Carroll, the latter starting the ball with 8 to 5 and being forced up by competition. It was a great betting race. In fact, not before this season at Chicago have so many good sprinters struck one another, and that Espionage was always the favorite in such company speaks volumes for her class as told by public appreciation. To an excellent start Frank Bell and Abuse raced away from Mary Black and Espionage and, paired at the upper turn, were three lengths better than Wishard's filly, Espionage two lengths further away. Traverser could never get up, and St. Simonian was never in the race. At the last eighth Frank Bell led Espionage, but the favorite passed him at will and won handily by three lengths. Abuse hung on gamely and wore down the youngster, Frank Bell, beating him on the post for the place.

As the leading horses passed the judges Traverser, close in on the inside fence and opposite the betting ring, near the last sixteenth post, staggered, then went down on one knee, recovered only to fall again and rise and go down for good. He was bleeding at the mouth and his struggles to rise were most pitiable, the thoroughbred showing as game as any bull dog. All effort futile he at last rolled over on his side and kicked his last as his owner, "Virginia" Bradley, lifted the colt's head and tried to free his throat of blood. The grand stand was depopulated, as also the betting ring, and thousands witnessed the end of the most ill-treated horse known to the turf. Horses are not iron, but some owners think differently. Traverser gave his best efforts to almost as unappreciative a horseman as the man, unenviably known to English turf history as the owner of The Dragon.

A day replete with incident closed with an unusual accident. The gate refused to act and three horses failed to get away, those hung in the webbing being Bridgeton, Jack of Hearts and Queen Safie. Czarowitz broke the webbing and led at the quarter. Brother Fred soon took command and held it to the homestretch, where Czarowitz went on only to be caught at leisure by Judge Steadman, who won hard held in a close finish. Brother Fred was a bad third.

Judge Rees said that the Molo race would be investigated.

There were nineteen regular and two field bookmakers.

Mr. Corrigan is improving steadily.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The yearlings to be sold at Hawthorne today by Mr. Tyree Bate and the Kenesaw Farm should bring good prices. The get of Glenelg do not figure largely nowadays because for some time past the old horse has been in comparative obscurity, but in this very lot there may be one the equal of Firenze, Monitor, Banquet, Los Angeles, Ferida and the other great racers that for years kept Glenelg at the head of the winning sires of America. No better campaigners than the Glenelg's have ever been known. With robust constitutions, legs of iron, at home on all kinds and conditions of tracks, speedy as the wind and stayers unexcelled, they have, indeed, been model racehorses.

Wednesday's Enquirer says: "A car load of horses left Latonia for Windsor last night. John Neal took Frank Leigh's good colt Sir Blaze, Sauterne, Minnie B. and Fanfaronade. E. Brewster had Violet Parsons and Nancy Seitz. J. T. Hatchett took the speedy 2-year-old filly Flying Bird. A party named Johnson, Guide Rock, School Girl and Lady Gray. Hardy Durham sent his 2-year-old colt Will Williamson in charge of Jockey Harry Williams. The others in the consignment were The Naulahka, Chiquita II., Liverpool and the 2-year-old Salvaree"

Mariti won the third race at Latonia Thursday with Virgie O. second, but through a protest the race finally went to the latter. According to the conditions of the race Virgie O., that ran second, carried 115 pounds, while Mariti should have shouldered 110. Instead she only carried 107, through an oversight of Trainer Hannigan. Will McDaniels, who trains Virgie O., that ran second, protested the payment of the purse, and his claim was allowed, the purse going to his mare.

John Campbell, who has Senator Bland and nine other horses belonging to H. L. Frank, the Montana horseman, at Latonia, will winter his string at Louisville. Mr. Campbell, who is one of the most widely known trainers in America, will, it is reported, open a public training stable next season, and will race in the west.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The handsome split-second gold watch, chain and locket, which cost the late "Hardy" Campbell $525, were raffled off in the secretary's office at the Morris Park track recently for the benefit of the late trainer's widow. The prize went to Joe Vendig, who held three $5 chances, and the total realized was $320.

For beating the gate too conspicuously with Queen of Song in the Zoo Zoo Stakes at Latonia, Jockey Everett was fined $100 and set down for thirty days. Everett will try his fortunes on the California tracks the coming winter.

C. L. Blackburn has bought from William Webb the 3-year-old gelding The Doctor, by Bersan—Lutan. Price $500.

John E. Madden has sold his speedy 2-year-old colt Frohinn, by Spendthrift—Llandrino, to A. J. Joyner for $1,500.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

In connection with the decision barring Jolly Roger from starting for the Stallion Stakes at Hawthorne the Cincinnati Enquirer says:

"The talk that Secretary Hopper and Colonel Tarlton do not agree with Captain Rees in his ruling in the case probably arose from the fact that on one occasion the Latonia officials did allow a horse that had been claimed out of a selling race to start in a stake. Cuticlene, who was claimed out of a selling race at Windsor two years ago, was allowed to start in the Ripple Stakes at the over-the-river track and won it. The party who claimed the horse had secured from his original owner a transfer of his engagements, the transfer papers being made out in the judges' stand before the race.

"Last fall, however, a horse that had been bought out of a selling race was not allowed to start in a stake at Latonia.

"At the Newport spring meeting Lady of the West won a selling race in which she was entered at $200. Somebody bid $205 when the mare was offered for sale, and Owen Bradley, who was training her, did not protect her. Subsequently Bradley himself bought the mare back. She was in one of the fall stakes at Latonia, but as C. D. Chenault, who owned the mare at the time she was bought out of the Newport selling race, refused to transfer her engagements, the Latonia officials would not let her start. These are the only cases of the kind that have come up at Latonia since 1896, and prior to that time the engagements of a horse always went with the horse. But as for the decision of Judge Rees in the Jolly Roger case, both Judge Tarlton and Secretary Hopper refuse to express an opinion."

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Joe Shelby was the best conditioned horse. He had no trouble after they straightened out for home. Rifle closed a big gap and finished like a whirlwind. Ramiro II. showed signs of exhaustion at the finish. He was staggering and had to be punished to get inside the money. Katie Longfellow showed marked improvement and had a lot of speed.
Scratched—Cecil, 97.
Overweights—Katie Longfellow, 44 pounds.

Off first break to a good start. The first two were in a hard drive. It was too far for Dave S and he set a killing pace which reacted on himself at the end. Fireside has recovered her form and speed. What Next finished strong. Was probably held in reserve too long.

 Winner—Ch. g, by Chesterfield—Jennie D.
 Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second, third and fourth driving just as hard. Rio Chico was lucky and well ridden. He liked the going and was fortunate to have a clear path all the way. The colt wanted badly to stop the last eighth and it was only Sloan's powerful effort that kept him going. Facade ran a game race and considering where he came from he was best. Off on equal terms with the winner Facade would have won off by himself. Capsicum was bumped and jostled at every turn. With clear sailing he would also have beaten Rio Chico.
 Scratched—Darlington, 111; Falcon Light, 111.
 Rio Chico, place, 2 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Facade, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Capsicum, show, 1 to 2.

 Winner—Ch. c, by Pardee—Outstep.
 Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end after a hard early drive. The next two were hard at it. Molo came to life with a start and ran an extra good race. His awakening was no more sudden than was Hampden's dull spell. The last time these two met Hampden won off by himself, while Molo was hardly able to raise a gallop. Today Molo showed he was much the best and had to be to win. He looked hopelessly beaten entering the backstretch, but he picked up his field one by one, and although he swerved at the head of the stretch, won comparatively easily at the end. Prince Blazes ran his usual honest race. He was right there and fighting for the money all the way. From a bad beginning Graziella ran a good race. Heigh Ho stopped almost to a walk the last twenty yards. Elidad was sharply shut off at the first turn. Considering this his race was not far out of line. King Bermuda did not run to the mark. It was a bad race all through. Molo was run up $300 over his entered price and bought in by his owner for the odd $5.
 Scratched—Moch, 103; Muskadine, 103; Nannie Davis, 100; Official, 103; Opponent, 100; Cyril, 100.
 Molo, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Prince Blazes, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Graziella, show, 3 to 1.

 Winner—B. c, by Major Richards—Patagonia.
 Post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; it was a terrific drive for the place. The Devil was best and had an easy time of it. He is a nice little horse and a most consistent performer. Mistral II. was lucky to get the place. With a stronger boy up Plantain would have surely obtained that position. Seaton was too light to help the colt any when the pinch came. When he tried to use his whip he dropped his horse's head, and Plantain floundered all over the track the last eighth. Al Fresco showed improvement. He deserves notice hereafter. Evidently the going was against B'rl'sque II. At any rate he could not raise a gallop.
 Scratched—Azucena, 100; Cherry Leaf, 112.
 The Devil, place, 1 to 5. Mistral II, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 10. Plantain, show, 3 to 5.

 Winner—B. c, by Bishop—Octa Reed.
 Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard; second and third also under keen pressure. Bishop Reed got a bit of the break and had speed enough to hold his own all the way. The colt displayed gameness too, in stalling off Vice Regal's rush at the end. The latter was well played and well ridden. He loves the mud, but seems to be a bad horse on the dry. Double Dummy saved a lot of ground by taking the short route on the turn. He looked all over a winner when straightened away for home, but quit badly when the pinch came. Moncreith is a bad horse these days and Tranby a plodder. Glennmoynes was hard ridden all the way. He was a false favorite. Pitfall showed some early speed, but like Glennmoynes went all to pieces.
 Scratched—Zolo, 107; Teutonna, 107; Sutor, 114; Necedah, 109; Warren Point, 107; Nicholas, 111; Ramona, 111.
 Bishop Reed, place, 3 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Vice Regal, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Double Dummy, show, 3 to 2.

Winner—B. 1, by Inspector B.—Sun Maid.
Post 2 minutes. Start good for all but St. Simonian. Won cleverly; the next two were driving to the limit. Espionage again showed her quality. It makes little or no difference to her whether it is in the mud or on the dry. She treats all comers alike. The filly dropped in behind the leaders down the backstretch thus avoiding the early pace. When straightened away the others stopped and she came on in gallant style. Abuse ran a grand game race under the weight. He was right there with the speedy Frank Bell all the way, stopped on the turn but came on again, like the good racehorse he is, under punishment the last eighth. Frank Bell displayed his usual phenomenal turn of speed. Mary Black seems to have gone back, still she showed some speed. Traverser at last met the fate that many owners predicted. He was raced to death. The colt broke a blood vessel and died.

Scratched—Our Nellie, 91; Sea Lion, 94.
Espionage, place, 3 to 5. Abuse, place, 7 to 10. Frank Bell, show, 1 to 2.

 Winner—Br. g, by Heratog—Lela B.
 Post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won pulled to a walk; second driven out. There was nothing to the race. Judge Steadman only cantered all the way. The Judge came near suffering the same fate as did Bridgeton, Jack of Hearts and Queen Safie. Sloan displayed more gameness than the boys on the other three horses and went away from the post carrying half of the barrier with him. Czarowitz found the route too far. He was very tired at the finish. The race was a farce and hardly should have gone. Starter Bruen got the horses well lined up and yelled "Come on," at the same time touching off the machine, which failed to work. Consequently it was torn and pulled to pieces. The three that were left standing were all entangled and the boys pulled up. The barrier did not go up and the send-off was made on the starter's word.

Winners—Kinnikinnick, br. c, by Candelmas—Flibbertigibbet. Swiftmas, b. c, by Candelmas—Nellie Swift.
Start fair. Swiftmas was the best. He broke flat footed and turned very wide. Only a badly judged ride beat him. Kinnikinnick ran his race and is very good. Mazarin showed improvement. Marito was poorly handled and shut off at the eighth post. She is not herself. Royal Stag is in bad form.
Scratched—George Keene, 123; St. Callatine, 116; Toluca, 111; Swamp Angel, 107; His Majesty, 97.
Overweights—Marito, 2 pounds; Mazarin, 1.
Swiftmas, place, 4 to 5. Kinnikinnick, place, 3 to 5.

Time, 1:14, 23, 47, 1:00.
Winner—B. c, by Knight of Ellerslie—Dear st.
Start good. Strangest closed strong under a vigorous ride. Deceptive was the best and is a fine looker, but his jockey was caught napping in finishing. Tophet was lucky and likes the mud. Imitation wants a longer route and was closing strong at the end. Favonius quit badly in the last furlong when apparently a strong contender. Sol had no chance at the start and wants a fast track, a longer route and a good jockey.
Scratched—Valdivia, 100.
Overweights—Strangest, 4 pounds.
Strangest, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Deceptive, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Tophet, show, 8 to 5.

Time, 1:34, 25, 38, 50, 1:04, 1:41, 1:53.
Winner—Ch. c, by Fonso—Ocean Queen.
Start good. Won easily. Sailor King was best at the weights and vigorously ridden. He was very good and likes the hill course. Banastar was himself to-day. He lost ground bearing out in the stretch and has developed bolting tendencies. Algal was run to a standstill by Banastar. He evidently dislikes this track and stopped badly at the end. Warrenton ran badly and bolted and swerved all over the stretch. Charina was badly outclassed.
Scratched—Macy, 119; George Keene, 114; Buella, 103; Twinkler, 100.
Overweights—Warrenton, 4 pounds; Charina, 5.
Sailor King, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Banastar, place, even; show, 1 to 2.

Time, 1:11, 23, 48, 1:00.
Winner—B. f, by Goldfinch—Suscol.
Start straggling. Won driving. Golden Days was easily the best and is very promising. Chivalrous should have won, but was the victim of a bad ride and will do to watch. Rose O'Lee ran well and likes this course. Exit and Halo were badly handled. It was a bad lot and the big field makes the form unreliable.
Scratched—Specialist, 109; Freak, 107; Tyrant, 95.
Golden Days, place, 3 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Chivalrous, place, 40 to 1; show, 20 to 1. Rose O'Lee, show, even.

Time, 2:54, 37, 50, 1:03, 1:16, 1:42.
Winner—B. g, by Midlothian—Mottle.
Start good. Won handily. In the sloppy going Scotch Plaid was the best and was finely managed, being saved the first part of the race. Banquo II ran finely. He was lucky and vigorously handled and is improving. Headlight closed strong. Continental appeared to be sore and is not himself. He can do better. Uncle Louis can win when he has a capable jockey. Field Lark tired in the going. He is very good, but wants a fast track.
Scratched—Oxnard, 105; Slasher, 99.
Scotch Plaid, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Banquo II, place, 8 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Headlight, show, 3 to 5.

Time, 1:3, 25, 38, 51, 1:03, 1:16.
Winner—B. f, by Sir Modred—Memento.
Start good. Won driving. Lady Lindsay was best in the sloppy going and besides her advantage in weights, had the best handling. Black Venus ran a grand race. She got a poor ride and was forced out of her position at a critical moment. She is very good. Effervescent ran her race. So did Prestidigitatrice. High Degree requires a fast track always and tired badly in the mud.
Scratched—Frances Booker, 105; Claroba, 105; Helen Thomas, 105.
Lady Lindsay, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Black Venus, place, 7 to 10; show, 1 to 2. Effervescent, show, 4 to 5.
